Experience the spirit of Brighton

There's a positive atmosphere in Brighton. The city by the sea has a passion for creativity, a desire to look at things differently, and a friendliness that attracts visitors from all over the world. Whether it's the sea air that changes your perspective, or the lively North Laine that buzzes day and night, or the mish-mash of people, Brighton's got that special something that will inspire you.

Our city has it all

One thing delegates love about our city is its vibrancy and best-of-all-worlds lifestyle. Whether it's the sea air, the South Downs National Park, or our year-round festivals – there's something for everyone. We've even got a Royal Palace built as a monument to decadence – proof that we've been at the forefront of entertainment and hospitality for over 200 years.

We're a foot-friendly city

The beauty of Brighton is that everything is on your doorstep. It takes 10 minutes to walk from the station to the seafront hotels, or from Brighton Pier to the Brighton i360 or from the Brighton Centre to the Royal Pavilion. And if you go on a 10-minute walk in any direction, you'll walk past more shops and restaurants than you can shake a stick of rock at.

VisitBrighton

We have a green heart

Brighton is well-known for its green values and its low carbon economy, so it makes sense that our hotels and conference venues are always improving their carbon footprints too. We strive to balance the needs of pedestrians, cyclists, public transport users and motorists. On top of that, we're home to the largest organic retailer in the country, various local food co-operatives and electric car initiatives.

A bite and a browse

From the big brand names of the high street to the personal welcome in the buzzing boutiques of The Lanes, there's no shortage of shops in Brighton. Feeling hungry? Brighton has almost as many restaurants as it has pebbles on the beach, from authentic Indian to chic vegetarian to good old fish'n'chips.

Brighton i360

For more information or to book, please call

+44 (0)1273 292629

Brighton i360 is the world's tallest moving observation tower, designed by Marks Barfield Architects, creators of the London Eye.

Your guests will glide up gently to 450 feet in a futuristic glass viewing pod to enjoy the breath-taking panoramic 360° views. The giant glass viewing pod can be hired either as part of your event or exclusively, for receptions for up to 175 people. It has a Nyetimber Sky Bar, sound system and video screens. Guests can enjoy a glass of Nyetimber sparkling wine, a canapé reception or even a full banquet on board.

The beachside event rooms are located in a separate suite and some have their own private terraces overlooking the beach. In addition to natural daylight and stunning sea views, the rooms also contain state of the art audio visual systems with superfast fibre optic broadband.

There is no other venue like this and exceptional care has been taken to design the spaces and all the facilities to create somewhere truly special for receptions, banquets, meetings, conferences and product launches.

Royal Pavilion & Museums

For more information or to book, please call
+44 (0)1273 292629

The Royal Pavilion & Museums offers a collection of cultural, spectacular and diverse venues for hire across Brighton. The Royal Pavilion, in the heart of the city's Cultural Quarter, is the former royal pleasure palace of King George IV. This resplendent venue, the jewel in Brighton's crown, is steeped in history and heritage. Today restored to its original 1823 splendour with Indian architecture contrasted with exotic interiors inspired by the Orient. Designed to entice, entrance and entertain the great, the good and the grand of George's court and continues to serve as a magnificent backdrop for impressive events. Brighton Museum, located within the Royal Pavilion's restored Regency garden, houses a magnificent collection of art and objects offering a distinctive space for evening events. Other venues operated by the Royal Pavilion & Museums include Brighton's former Victorian Courtroom and Preston Manor, an elegant Edwardian house on the fringe of the city.

They came, they saw, they left inspired…

Organisers and delegates all agree: holding a conference in Brighton couldn't be easier or more enjoyable… the results speak for themselves.

"VisitBrighton were a great source of help and played an integral role in our organisation being able to return to Brighton. They offered a great range of services and support and the Delegate Accommodation Booking Service they provided for our conference was excellently managed and well used by our members"

Karen Handley, Conference Organiser
National Union of Teachers

"Our delegates simply loved Brighton. Being so compact they were able to enjoy the charm, uniqueness and quirkiness of the city in the free time they had. We are grateful of the help that VisitBrighton provided and we look forward to working with them again in the not too distant future"

Malcolm Muskett, General Manager
NOTA

"Brighton has so much to offer outside of conference which just adds to the delegate experience. It is an exciting and vibrant city and with the venues being situated so close to the city centre and local amenities, it offers delegates a lot of choice and flexibility throughout our conference"

Liberal Democrats
Conference Department

"Brighton provided the perfect backdrop to our conference and we were delighted we were able to return to the city with our Annual Conference. With the excellent service and impartial advice that VisitBrighton provided, many elements of our planning process were made easier"

Jason Russell, Head of Events and Marketing
Chartered Institute of Library and Information Professionals

"Brighton is an excellent destination for conferences and we were ably supported by VisitBrighton who set up a dedicated accommodation booking site for us!

Huw Davies, Chief Executive
British Association for Supported Employment
