

A Weekend Getaway

You've probably walked along every possible walking route near your house for the last year and can think of nothing better than hitting the road and exploring somewhere new. As Brighton begins to reopen safely read on for our itinerary to help you plan a break exploring the city with friends - post lockdown!

This suggested itinerary is for a 2 night stay.

Day 1

Arrive in Brighton and check into Snooze, Brighton funkiest Bed & Breakfast.

Get ready for the day ahead and head into the city centre for Coffee and Brunch at Trading Post Coffee Roasters

Explore the Lanes and North Laine to see a plethora of independent shops and soak up some the bohemian vibe of Brighton.

Look out for Snoopers Paradise, Brighton's famous vintage, antiques and bric-a-brac emporium

Brighton has earned itself an international reputation over the last few years for its stunning and original street artwork dotted around the city so why not join a Brighton Street Art tour and learn a little more on how the city became so colourful.

Pop into Cielo Cakery on your way back to the hotel for a delicious afternoon pick me up.

Dine this evening at the Curry Leaf Café – Kemptown Kitchen for delicious small plates of Southern Indian Street food, perfect for sharing with friends

Day 2

No trip to Brighton is complete without a visit to the Brighton Palace Pier. Stroll along to the end to capture some breath-taking views of Brighton or have a go at some of the traditional seaside games!

Before you leave, make sure you buy some of the famous Pier doughnuts.

Take a sunset flight on the British Airways i360 and take in the best views of the city.

Enjoy a taste of NYC on Brighton Seafront at The New Club. Order Tacos or the famous Burgers to fuel you up for the night ahead

End your evening with a delicious cocktail (or 2) at Merkaba or if you're more of a night owl, experience Brighton's live music scene and top DJ sets in the pubs and clubs
